

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Promote the benefits of learning, become a COMMUNITY LEARNING CHAMPION

Places Limited

Why be a CLC?

- Develop your skills through volunteering
- Receive training
- Encourage people in your community to connect to learning and training
- Represent your community's needs

Who can be a CLC?

- People connected with community in the North Melbourne and Flemington areas
- People that speak English and languages other than English
- People passionate about learning and getting others active in their community
- People eligible for funding under ACFE (may be waived in some circumstances)

What does it involve?

- At least a commitment of 6 months to volunteer
- Attending 4 CLC training workshops
- Attending monthly CLC meetings
- One-to-one support meetings with the coordinator
- Supporting and encouraging friends, neighbours and community members to learn about and take up learning and employment opportunities
- Consulting your community on a range of issues relating to learning, employment and work with NMLL to respond to priority needs

For further information or to register your interest as a Community Learning Champion, contact Loretta Asquini, phone: 9326 7447 email: lasquini@nml.org.au

NMLL is a community based training provider, a Registered Training Organisation and a Learn Local Organisation (TOID6410). The CLC training is supported by funding from Federal and Victorian Governments.

Why Volunteer as a Community Learning Champion ?

Did you Know?

73% of employers would recruit a candidate with volunteering experience over one without

Volunteer Community Learning Champions will receive:

A certificate of participation for attending the Community Learning Champion training in an ACFE pre-accredited course

A certification of appreciation for volunteer contribution

A referee that can be used for job applications or when applying for courses, volunteering or other opportunities

What past Community learning Champions have said about their volunteering experience:

- "We learnt to plan activities, I learnt about organising an activity, promoting it to my community and helped to run the activity."
- "My English improved as a CLC, I learnt new information so I could share it with my community."
- "I'm proud that I helped others increase their confidence and self-esteem. Now they have clear goals about their future learning goals."
- "I wasn't really looking to volunteer, I was looking for work. But volunteering as a CLC was the best thing that I ever did and I would encourage others to become a CLC too!"