

THE FLOURISH PROJECT

The Flourish Training program Begins Tuesday 16th February

Develop digital & employment skills by:

- Learning how to prepare for and teach a workshop
- Learning how to create a short video
- Improving computer skills for work
- Practicing your English

NMML will also support you to access employment and learning opportunities

For more information and to register your interest please contact
Nikki Blanch at NMML: 9326 7447 / cdevents@nmml.org.au

THE FLOURISH PROJECT

Program dates:

Flourish is a training program designed to support transition into work or study, by highlighting your strengths, and skills and knowledge in traditional cooking and arts. This is an opportunity to teach others, share your culture, and learn valuable skills.

16/02/21, 4 - 6pm: Enrolment and information session at NMLL, 33 Alfred St, North Melbourne

All following sessions will be held at Multicultural Hub - 506 Elizabeth St, Melbourne 10am - 1pm every Tuesday

- 23/02/21: Online platforms for work and study; essentials of using Zoom
- 02/03/21: How to use Google Drive & Google Docs for learning and job seeking
- 09/03/21: How to use Google Drive to manage your files
- 16/03/21: Guest Presenter - Nayran Tabiei - How to present a successful cooking workshop
- 23/03/21: How to prepare for filming your own workshop; creating a recipe and runsheet
- 30/03/21: Mentor session - complete individual tasks
- 06/04/21: Mentor session - access support to build your skills
- 13/04/21: Filming and editing individual films
- 20/04/21: Filming and editing individual films
- 27/04/21: Follow up mentor session - sign up for further study or employment opportunities

Flourish is a Pre-accredited Training Program

All students will receive a certificate of participation

For more information and to register your interest please contact

Nikki Blanch at NMLL: 9326 7447 / cdevents@nmll.org.au

THE FLOURISH PROJECT

Program outline:

Flourish is a training program designed to support transition into work or study, by highlighting your strengths, and skills and knowledge in traditional cooking and arts. This is an opportunity to teach others, share your culture, and learn valuable skills.

- Program overview. Enrolment and information session
- An overview of online platforms for work and study
- How to use Google Drive & Google Docs for group work
- Google Drive - setting up, managing folders, sharing files
- Zoom essentials - how to use for meetings and interviews
- Zoom essentials - participate in online learning
- Prepare your own instructional video
- Mentoring sessions - access support to build your skills

Flourish is a Pre-accredited Training Program

There will be mentor support available for all computer based learning

On completion of the program:

All students will receive a certificate of participation

There will be opportunities to sign up for further study and employment pathways

For more information and to register your interest please contact
Nikki Blanch at NMLL: 9326 7447 / cdevents@nmll.org.au